Our growing company is looking for a java developer associate. To join our growing team, please review the list of responsibilities and qualifications.

Responsibilities for java developer associate

- Work to resolve through challenges to deliver on commitments
- Proactively identify issues and escalate to pertinent team members
- Lead the Development team by example and ensure that we have adequate Unit Test Cases, Test Stubs and
- Familiar with standard development life cycle methodologies such as Agile and Waterfall
- The successful candidate will be involved in the full development life cycle of analysis, design, implementation, testing, deployment and support of Macro Client technology platform
- Develops source code, including descriptions, for all Software Components in accordance with Detailed Software Requirements specification, the functional design and the technical design document
- Contributes to quality assurance by writing unit and functional tests
- Ensures that all code changes end up in Change Items (CIs)
- Where applicable, develops routines to deploy CIs to the target environments
- Collaborates with colleagues participating in other stages of the Software Development Lifecycle (SDLC)

Qualifications for java developer associate

- Keeps up to date with new technologies and software products
- Enhances the firms core values and accepts ownership for issues across teams to help the client get the best service possible

- Agile software development experience preferred, but not essential
- Minimum 8-10 years of application programming and development experience including but not limited to JAVA/JEE, frameworks like Spring, hibernate
- Consistently displays awareness and sensitivity to the needs of internal clients and external vendors